

I would like to ask that the "no call" list be left as it is. I do not want to be harassed by calls from businesses or their affiliates simply because I have done business with them. In fact, when such calls do occur, I end my business relationship with that particular company because of the phone calls. So, if you want to protect the business-consumer relationship, don't call! Thank you.